23/03/2020

Please don’t forget those living alone

As the coming weeks will be crucial for reducing exposure to the coronavirus, we ask you to follow the directions of state officials and public healthcare authorities. With the help of God, and with prayer, this crisis will soon end.

Also, please do not forget the people who live by themselves and may need assistance, or even a kind word by phone. Contact them and devote some of your time.