Metropolitan of Italy Gennadios: ‘Shortly we’ll celebrate the Resurrection, along with magnificent success of a cure against the coronavirus’

The Metropolitan of Italy, His Eminence Gennadios, in his message regarding the pandemic, reminded that the Orthodox faithful have a very power spiritual tool at their disposal, namely, that of the Holy Eucharist – which gives the flock hope, faith and love, and one that leads to prayer.

His Eminence adds: “…Shortly we’ll celebrate the Resurrection; shortly we’ll celebrate the eternal life; shortly we’ll celebrate victory over death, along with the magnificent success of a discovery of a cure against the coronavirus.”
