27/12/2018

Explosive device outside church in central Athens; two injured | (VIDEO)

A homemade bomb exploded outside Aghios Dionysios church, Kolonaki, Athens, on Thursday morning injuring two persons.
The mechanism exploded at 07:10. According to sources, it was made of two boxes of flammable liquid, wires and a clock.
The bomb injured the policeman who was examining the box as well as a church employee.
The area has been cordonned off.

Source: ANA-MPA news