02/04/2020

Russian Orthodox Youth Committee remains still active throughout country

The Russian Orthodox Youth Committee this week announced that the organization remains fully active in providing support and assistance to the elderly, at-risk groups and those who remain in quarantine due to the coronavirus outbreak.

Groups of volunteers from the organization are active throughout the vast country, compiling lists of households and individuals requiring meals and medicines.