Patriarchate of Georgia gives recommendations to heads of churches

Andria Jaghmaidze, Head of Press Center of Georgian Patriarchate said that heads of churches will be given 3 recommendations today.

“You are given three recommendations: The patriarch’s blessing is that, considering the curfew, prayers will begin tomorrow at 4.00 pm and the church will be closed at 8 pm every day.

As a reminder, it is important to make signs marking 1.5 meter distance. With that purpose, contact Father Ioane (Tel: 591 000 600).

Please, disinfect icons and holy items and clean the floors often. Assign people for observation of situation in the churches,” reads the information released by Andria Jaghmaidze in the social network.
