Metropolitan of Mesogeas & Lavreotiki issues encyclical on personal prayer

The Metropolitan of Mesogeas and Lavreotiki, His Eminence Nikolaos, referred to the subject of individual prayer, in a recent encyclical to the faithful.
Among others, His Eminence notes that “… we’ve been deprived our services, however, prayer has not been forbidden. In fact, prayer may be conducted with more zeal in the present, maybe more deep-seated pain and eagerness , surfaces…”
