

13/04/2020

Another instances of church vandalism reported in Greece

Two instances of church vandalism were reported, with a small chapel within a cemetery near the central town of Lamia first burglarized and then set on fire by vandals. In the northern city of Thessaloniki, vandals scrawled slogans outside the historic Prophet Elijah Church in the Ano Poli district of the city.

