14/04/2020

Archbishop Elpidophoros of America broadcasts Services of Holy Week from the Archdiocese

The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America will broadcast the services of Holy Week with His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros from the Chapel of Saint Paul at the Archdiocesan Headquarters in New York City. The services will be available on a variety of media outlets including ANT1 Satellite, as well as online on the Archdiocesan YouTube channel and Archbishop Elpidophoros' Facebook and Twitter pages.

The schedule for services is as follows. Please note all times are EST.

Monday, April 13

6:00 p.m. — Holy Monday Nymphios (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

Tuesday, April 14

10:00 a.m. — Pre-Sanctified Liturgy (Online)

6:00 p.m. — Holy Tuesday Nymphios (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

Wednesday, April 15

10:00 a.m. — Pre-Sanctified Liturgy (Online)

6:00 p.m. — Holy Unction (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

Thursday, April 16

10:00 a.m. — Vesperal Liturgy of Holy Thursday (Online)

6:00 p.m. — The Crucifixion of the Lord and the Twelve Gospels (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

Friday, April 17

10:15 a.m. — The Royal Hours and Apokathelosis (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

6:00 p.m. — The Lamentations of the Lord (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

Saturday, April 18

7:30 a.m. — Vesperal Liturgy of Holy Saturday (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

11:15 p.m. — ANASTASI and Divine Liturgy (Online and ANT1 Satellite)

Sunday, April 19

10:00 a.m. — Agape Vespers (Online)

— Source: goarch.org