22/04/2020

Albanian Prime Minister, Edi Rama wished Happy Easter Sunday to all families who celebrates this feast

Admitting the strange situation due to coronavirus outbreak, PM Rama emphaised that this Easter Sunday is being celebrated without churches open but with God near every family.

“Orthodox Easter comes in this strange time of locked temples. Churches aren’t open but God is near every family that celebrates. Happy Easter Sunday,” Rama states.

Source