A partnership to help those who lost their jobs due to COVID-19

The Metropolis of Chicago is partnering with Medix, a national workforce solutions firm, to help displaced workers belonging to the Metropolis find work during the pandemic. See the announcement below for more details, including how to apply.

In the coming weeks, look for additional announcements from the Metropolis offering assistance to those in our community who have been impacted by the Coronavirus pandemic. Employers and businesses are invited to partner with the Metropolis to offer job opportunities and humanitarian assistance to our community.
