28/04/2020

Romanian Church: Only voluntary attendance in family planning lesson

The Romanian Patriarchate this week called for the voluntary attendance of pupils in a new public school curriculum touching on the issue of family planning, while adding that such a lesson should be based on moral values.