29/04/2020

Romanian Church decries posters depicting physicians as Orthodox saints

The Patriarchate of Romania this week condemned a publicity campaign that featured physicians depicted as holy saints, in styles that that are reminiscent of Orthodox Icons. The images were plastered posters around the city, and also drew criticism from medical groups.