Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew participated in a 24-hour drive for unity amid the global pandemic - (VIDEO)

His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew participated in a 24-hour drive for unity, The Call to Unite, organized by disability rights activist and film producer Timothy Shriver. It opened Friday evening and features numerous leaders and celebrities offering video messages of solidarity and support amid the worldwide Covid-19 pandemic.

View featured videos and see the schedule of speakers and much more at www.unite.us. His All-Holiness delivered his message on Saturday, May 2, 2020.

The videos are designed to celebrate someone who has been supportive for the speaker through the pandemic, as well as to explain the speaker plans to #answerthecall for someone else in need.
