04/05/2020

Russian Patriarch: Decision for coranavirus recommendation the most difficult of my tenure

The Patriarch of Moscow and All Russia, His Holiness Kirill, again cited the tribulation faced by humanity, in the form of the pandemic. His Holiness reiterated a decision by the Holy Synod of the Russian Church to recommend to worshipers that they do not attend the holy services, saying this was one of the most difficult decisions he has ever taken as Primate of the Russian Orthodox Church.