Live-streaming of holy services from Vatopodi glebe of Porto Lagos continuing on pages of Orthodoxia news agency

The online magazine Pemptousia and the Orthodoxia news agency are continuing to live-stream all daily church services this week, conducted in Mount Athos liturgical tradition, from the St. Nicholas church in Porto Lagos, a glebe of the Holy and Great Monastery of Vatopedi.

The live-streaming will continue for as long as churches in Greece remain closed to worshipers due to coronavirus restrictions.
