Orthodox Archdiocese of Nairobi - His Eminence Archbishop Makarios distributed food to the parents of the students at St. Clements primary school and Child of God

In the Orthodox Archdiocese of Nairobi, His Eminence Archbishop Makarios, today distributed food to the parents of the students at St. Clements primary school and Child of God.

In total of 150 parents. Our friends and sponsors in Australia and America donated a gift to help the parents and students at St. Clements primary school.

His Eminence asked the parents to continue in prayer for the Country of Kenya and the whole world during this terrible time and for this pandemic to come to an end.
