

Graduations to Be Held Online for Direct Archdiocesan Greek Community Schools

NEW YORK – Two graduation ceremonies will be held online with the participation of the Archbishop Elpidophoros of America on Saturday, June 6, by the Day and Afternoon Greek schools of the Direct Archdiocesan District. As the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America Director of the Department of Greek Education, Anastasios Koularmanis, told The National Herald, the ceremonies will take place through the Zoom platform, but there will be an open live broadcast on social networks, so that parents, relatives and friends can watch.

thenationalherald.com