

13/05/2020

Greek Orthodox cathedrals reopen in South Australia

Greek Orthodox Churches and community centers have reopened in the State of South Australia, according to an announcement by state authorities, which reminded that precautions to prevent exposure to the coronavirus must still be followed.