Antiochian Orthodox Christian Archdiocese of North America – “Faith Amid Plague:” Ancient Faith Radio Interview with Metropolitan Joseph

In a new installment in the Ancient Raith Radio podcast “Ancient Faith Presents,” Metropolitan Joseph is joined by Fr. Andrew Stephen Damick to talk about tough ministry questions amid the COVID-19 pandemic. How do a bishop and his clergy struggle to minister in these conditions? What about new technology? How do we relate to government?

Also joined by Fr. Thomas Zain and Fr. Nicholas Belcher, His Eminence addresses head-on the pain and difficulty we’re all facing, covering practical matters as well as bigger theological and spiritual questions, collected directly from concerned listeners. This in-depth interview wraps up with questions on his time with St. Paisios, communing the non-Orthodox, and the future of monasticism in the Archdiocese.
