The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Aksum announces the reopening of the Holy Cathedral of St. Frumentius

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of Aksum announces that from Sunday, May 17, the Holy Cathedral of St. Frumentius in Addis Ababa (Piazza) will reopen in the presence of the faithful and it is possible to attend the church service of those who wish. The above act arises after a decision of the Ethiopian Government, strictly adhering to all the protection measures prescribed by the State (MANDATORY inside the Holy Temple using a face mask and safety distances).
