

Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia: We pray for our families, that they be strong, Christian and faithful

The Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia, His Holiness and Beatitude Ilia II, spoke after the Divine Liturgy on Sunday at the Cathedral of the Holy Trinity in Tbilisi, on the institution of the family, which was commemorated in the Caucasus country the same day.

In his sermon, the Georgian Patriarch noted that “today we celebrate the day of purity of the family. We pray for our families, that they be strong, Christian and faithful.”
