

18/05/2020

Russian Church clerics comfort patients in hospitals online, when necessary

The Russian Orthodox Church over the weekend inaugurated a program whereby clerics can meet and comfort patients in hospitals via an online platform, including patients treated for the coronavirus.

The platform and meetings were organized by Moscow Patriarchate's Synodal Department for Church Charity and Social Ministry.