

A video of support from over 30 countries for the Serbian Orthodox Church in Montenegro

A great attention has been paid to an exceptional video material put on the YouTube in the form of conjoint video “We won’t give up our shrines! - support from over 30 countries around the world”, which was initiated by a Serbian theologian Krsto Stanisic, and realized by a team of young people led by Georgina Stanisic. Krsto Stanišić, a PhD student in theology in Germany, is talking for the Radio “Slovo ljubve AEM” about the recording and realization of this very demanding project and the response to it.

He says that support comes from many people around the world, regardless to their nationality and religion: “They are honest people and they all share the admiration for the prayer procession for protecting the shrines and to the people of Montenegro. There are many more than 30 countries from which people are interested in what has been happening in the Montenegro. The people have recognized the meaning of the prayer procession. The profoundness of the prayer procession is a global meaning. The message - We won’t give our shrines- is a global message. The biblical scenes have been taking place in Montenegro. The prayer procession is something truly universal in the world. It is something that Montenegro has to offer not only to Europe but to all the humanity as well!"

A short part of the conversation is given below, and a more detailed conversation with the authors of the unique video, which can be watched below, was broadcast on this radio in the programme "Srpski most" on May 21 at 11 am.

For Info Service of the SOC translated into English by Sanja Simic de Graaf

Source