

26/05/2020

Metropolitan of Sweden: Divine Liturgy will be celebrated with of worshipers as of June 6

The Metropolitan of Sweden and All Scandinavia, His Eminence Cleopas, in an encyclical, announced that holy services and the Divine Liturgy will be celebrated with the presence of worshipers as of June 6, as coronavirus restrictions continue to be lifted across Europe.

June 6 on the Orthodox calendar for 2020 is the Saturday of Souls, before Holy Pentecost.