

Archbishop of Australia's homily on commemoration of the Holy Fathers of First Ecumenical Council

The Archbishop of Australia, His Eminence Makarios, issued a message of unity on the occasion of the celebration of the memory of the Holy Fathers of the First Ecumenical Council.

Sunday, May 31, is dedicated to the memory of the 318 Holy Fathers who took part in the Ecumenical Council of Nicaea and who struggled to ensure that the Church remained united.

His Eminence officiated at the Parish of St Catherine's in Mascot, Sydney, where he also elevated the parish priest Fr Athanasios Giatsios to the rank of Protopresbyter.
