04/06/2020

Ukraine to allow church services indoors on June 5

Religious events will be allowed indoors in Ukraine since June 5, on the condition that the number of people present is limited to one person per five square meters.

This decision was made on Wednesday.

The Ukrainian government will also allow public catering establishments to resume operations, in particular, to serve visitors indoors.

People over the age of 60 will also be allowed not to observe self-isolation starting on June 5.

Source