10/06/2020

Debate continues on draft education sector draft bill

Debate continued on Tuesday in a relevant Parliament committee over a draft bill on changes in Greece’s public education sector, which among others, retains the low number of hours for weekly instruction in religious studies, while excluding this lesson from end-of-the-year exit exams.