10/06/2020

Church today commemorates memory of Alexander and Antonina the Martyrs

The Church today venerates the memory of Alexander and Antonina the Martyrs. The martyrdom of these two saints is detailed, in Greek, on the pages of the Diakonima.gr site.

Original photographic material of St. Maximus the Greek Institute posted on webpage Ascetic Experience

The webpage Ascetic Experience has posted a prolific photographic feature on liturgical life of the semi-autonomous monastic community of Mount Athos, in northern Greece.
The original photographic material is the intellectual property of the St. Maximus the Greek Institute, and will soon be made available to international news agencies in a bid to better inform the world’s public regarding the Holy Mountain, Orthodoxy’s foremost monastic community.