17/06/2020

Church services with worshipers again allowed in Romania

The Patriarchate of Romania on Tuesday expressed its satisfaction with a highly expected decision by the Romanian government to finally allow holy services in churches and cathedrals with the presence of worshipers, a spokesman for the Patriarchate told the ecclesiastical news agency Basilica.