

Multitude of well-wishers convey speedy recovery to Archbishop of Albania Anastasios

The Archbishop of Tirana and All Albania, His Beatitude Anastasios, expressed his gratitude for the multitude of best wishes and messages he has received, in the wake of a successful angioplasty surgery he underwent late last week.

In a statement on Saturday, the Archdiocese stressed that ...glory be to God, the Archbishop's recovery is particularly satisfactory.