Serbian Orthodox Metropolitan again raises issue of return of Church properties in Sarajevo

The Serbian Orthodox Metropolitan of Dabar-Bosnia, His Eminence Chrysostom, met this week with the Serbian representative of the presidency of Bosnia and Herzegovina, Milorad Dodik, with talks focusing directly on the return of the Church's properties in the city of Sarajevo.

Dodik reminded that a huge amount of Church property in the Bosnian has been confiscated, with no progress made in returning this property, as has been the case with other religious communities.
