

14/07/2020

Church of the Holy Sepulcher again closed to worshippers due to coronavirus

The Church of the Holy Sepulcher in Jerusalem was again closed to worshippers, as part of renewed restrictions placed by the Israeli government to prevent exposure to the coronavirus. A spike in confirmed Covid-19 cases was reported in Israel and the Holy Land over the recent period.

Restrictions were also placed on arrivals to Israel.