

Archbishop Elpidophoros of America speaks with former US VP Biden on Hagia Sophia

Archbishop Elpidophoros of America on Thursday posted on social media to thank former US Vice President Biden for expressing his support on the Hagia Sophia issue.

On Twitter, he wrote: “I was grateful to receive a call from (former) Vice-President Joe Biden, expressing his support of our Ecumenical Patriarchate, and his solidarity with our cause to maintain the status quo for Hagia Sophia.”

I was grateful to receive a call from VP @JoeBiden, expressing his support of our Ecumenical Patriarchate, and his solidarity with our cause to maintain the status quo for #HagiaSophia.

— Elpidophoros (@Elpidophoros) July 17, 2020

Source