

31/07/2020

Pastoral education, religious studies discussed by special com't in Greece

The issue of pastoral education and theology studies was discussed by members of a committee established to study and resolve matters affecting the autocephalous Orthodox Church of Greece.

The meeting on Friday was held at the education ministry in Athens, following an invitation by relevant education and religious affairs minister Niki Kerameos.