

Litany at Ecumenical Patriarchate's Panagia Koumariotissa

A litany of the holy icon of the Theotokos, the Ever-Virgin Mary, was held at the Church of the Panagia Koumariotissa, in the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople's parish of Neochori, on the occasion of Sunday's Apodosis of the Feast day of the Dormition — exactly nine days after the great feast day, known in Greek Orthodoxy as the “small pascha or Easter” of summer, was celebrated. The Metropolitan of Iconium, His Eminence Theoliptos, officiated at the litany service.
