

Romanian Church issues report on course, works since enthronement of Patriarch Daniel

The Romanian Church's center for Orthodox studies this week issued a report on the Church's course and good works since the day the Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, was enthroned.

The report, entitled "Rebirth of the Romanian Orthodox Church", also provides a brief history of Orthodoxy in the land, particularly during the country's transition from a dour communist regime to the present.
