

27/08/2020

Metropolitan of Montenegro calls on citizens to vote, in order to defend the faith

Only days remain before a general election in the small Adriatic country of Montenegro on Sunday, amid continuing persecution of the Orthodox Church there by the outgoing government.

In a videotaped message, the Metropolitan-Bishop of Montenegro and the Littoral, His Eminence Amphilochios, called on citizens to vote, in order to defend the faith, as he said.