

Church commemorates Moses the prophet and God-seer

The Church today venerates the memory of Moses the prophet and God-seer.

The Prophet Moses, whose name means “one who draws forth,” or, “is drawn from,” namely, from the water — was the pinnacle of wisdom, a supremely wise lawgiver, and the most ancient historian of all.