

04/09/2020

Greece-Serbia bilateral agreement includes cooperation for religious, cultural tourism

Greece's Parliament on Thursday ratified a bilateral agreement between the country and Serbia in the tourism sector.

Among others, the agreement emphasizes bilateral cooperation on specialized forms of tourism, such as cultural and religious tourism.

More than one million Serbian nationals visited Greece in 2019, with many tour groups from that country visiting religious sites, such as monasteries, cathedrals and Mt. Athos.