

Another chapel on Lesbos desecrated

Another chapel on the beleaguered eastern Aegean island of Lesbos has been targeted by groups of third country asylum seekers and irregular migrants, with an unknown NGO having set up a tent-shelter inside and outside the chapel of St. George.

The images that have seen the light of day have caused sadness among the faithful over the latest desecration on the island.

