

Bulgarian Patriarch heralds beginning of new academic year

The Patriarch of Bulgaria, His Holiness Neofyt, called on God to bless the country's people amid the ongoing difficult period due to the pandemic, referring in particular to children and young people, who as he said, are "...our future".

The Bulgarian Patriarch issued a homily on the occasion of the beginning of the new academic year in the country.