16/09/2020

Romanian Patriarch tours new Church-run nursery school in Bucharest

The Patriarch of All Romania, His Beatitude Daniel, speaking on the occasion of the new academic year in the country, referred to the significance of a child's first years and the education a child should receive from school and parents.

The Romania Patriarch spoke during a visit to a new Church-run nursery school in Bucharest, named the Dormition of the Theotokos.