18/09/2020

Visit to Austria by Ecumenical Patriarch canceled due to Covid-19

A scheduled visit to Austria by the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, His All Holiness Bartholomew I, has been cancelled.

His All Holiness was set to arrive in the central European country next week for the dedication of the first Orthodox monastery in Austria. The reason for the cancellation was the ongoing pandemic.