

Metropolitan-Bishop of Montenegro: I respect gov't, but I cannot respect every ruler

The Metropolitan-Bishop of Montenegro and the Littoral, His Eminence Amphilochios, this week reminded that all authority comes from God, in response to certain critics in the small Adriatic country claiming that the hierarch did not respect Montenegro's previous political leadership.

He said "...I respect the government, but I cannot respect every ruler, all must be respected as people, but not their crimes or ideology, if it is fake and disrespectful."
