

Commemoration of the Conception of St. John the Baptist

The Church today commemorates the Conception of St. John the Baptist.

His birth came to pass 15 months before the birth of Christ, after a vision of the Angel that Zacharias, the father of the Forerunner, saw in the temple.

