Massive Cross raised in Kosovo

A huge cross 20 meters high and 12 meters wide was erected in northern Kosovo on Thursday, October 1st, 2020, on a hill at an altitude of 905 meters.

The Holy Cross is the largest in the Serbian province of Kosovo and was funded by Serbs.

The idea came from residents of the Leposavic municipality. The Cross is made of steel which is stainless steel.

Watch the video of the Cross being raised.

```

```

Source