

05/10/2020

Archbishop of Athens Ieronymos officiates at blessing ceremony in Greece's Parliament

The Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, His Beatitude Ieronymos on Monday officiated at the customary blessing ceremony in Greece's Parliament, on the occasion of the beginning of the new legislative period.

The ceremony was held with all public health precautions, to prevent exposure to the coronavirus pandemic, with 60 MPs in attendance during a plenary session, representing all parties in the legislature.