

05/10/2020

Archbishop of Crete remains in hospital ICU on Mon.

The Archbishop of Crete, His Eminence Irineos, will remain in a hospital ICU on Monday, given that he has a fever.

Attending physicians announced that the 87-year-old hierarch could be transferred to a neurological clinic on Tuesday, at the same hospital in the Cretan city of Irakleio, as conditions allow.