

Australia - Principal appointed to St Sava College

Following an extensive search for the founding principal of St.Sava College, His Grace Bishop Siluan and the Board are pleased to announce that Mrs Anastasia Anne Nicolaou has been appointed to welcome our first student cohort and guide our students on their “Path to Life” at St.Sava College.

Anne has extensive experience as teacher and administrator in a number of very reputable schools. She spent thirteen years at St Spyridon Greek Orthodox College in Kingsford, initially as teacher, then as Deputy Principal and Acting Head Mistress of the Junior School. Following that she was employed at Ascham School in Edgecliff and Canberra Grammar, before transferring to St.Catherine’s Girls School in Waverley, where she will see the year out as Deputy Head of the Junior School.

Anne is of Greek heritage and is a member of the Greek Orthodox Parish in Kingsford. Her distinguished academic and professional credentials are underpinned by the emphatic endorsements of her previous employers, and we are grateful to God that a person of such calibre and dedication will lead the charge in Varroville.

Welcome to St.Sava College Anne! DOBRO NAM DOSLI !
