

Romanian Patriarchate gives faithful five reasons to follow its social media, one main reason not to

The website of the Romanian patriarchate, basilica.ro posted a lengthy article on the role of social media in presenting Orthodoxy and the Church's message. The article lists the 5 reasons why one should follow the social media of the Patriarchate and the one reason he should not, and explains: "We do our duty and always inform you, but at times you have to ignore us. Go to church and pray. Don't spend all your time on social media ".